1. If you are blessed to be able to purchase a Navapashanam Talisman here are the ways you can put the bead to use:
 - A. You can take the Navapashanam Energized Elixir yourself.
 - B. If you freely give the Navapashanam Energized Elixir to your family, loved friends, close friends, it is a gift of Love. You are then responsible to introduce those you give the Holy Water so that they understand how to set an intention/Sankalpa and how much to take a day, answer their questions in a supportive way. By the way you always have support from Swaha@Discerning-Wisdom.Com and 818-298-6100.
 - C. If your heart resonates with you charging, accepting donations, accepting tithing or accepting gifts from people you bless with Navapashanam Energized Elixir, you agree to send a of 3% of the value of what you receive to the Navapashanam Master Papa in India. This can be a tricky proposition in spiritual communities. It has been found, even when there is no desire to receive anything from those that are given the Holy Water, some of the people's hearts cri out in gratitude and Must make an offering. When this happens naturally, then it is important to accept the offering for their sake. Periodically send to Swaha who wire transfers Dakshina to India.

 - D. If you work for free at a center or someone's house that is organizing people to come to you who receive the Navapashanam Energized Elixir for free and the people who come bring food and beverages it is acceptable for your host to keep the food and beverages left over without sending anything to India. However, if you host receives furniture, property, donations anything of material value, whether a non-profit organization, a Church/Spiritual Organization or other, then you will see that the value received by your host will agree to send a minimum of 3% of the material value to Papa the Navapashanam Master.
 - E. To be able to purchase a Navapashanam Talisman at $750/gram is a blessing of incalculable proportions and would also be a blessing at $7500 a gram. It is unknown how long the Navapashanam Master in India will allow Navapashanam Talisman to be acquired. The Navapashanam Master, we only know as Papa, is actually the Maha Siddha Bogar who we understand transmigrated into a young body and now, that body is over 100 years old. Other than the purchase of herbs and minerals it is unknown what the Navapashanam Master does with the money he requires in exchange for a Navapashanam Talisman. He lives in a trash hut in a remote jungle in South India! It may be simply a required karmic exchange of energy! At this time, this Navapashanam Master is the ONLY know Master to be making Navapashanam, while several others are claiming to make/have made Navapashanam. There are a number of fake and stolen beads in the US, Europe and India which can ONLY bring unimaginable suffering to anyone that partakes, knowingly or unknowingly.
